

ONLINE PRINTING SERVICE FOR UMP CAMPUS

BCC3024 FINAL YEAR PPROJECT II

NURUL AIN FARHANA BINTI PAUZI
CB19062

DR NOORLIN BINTI MOHD ALI

INTRODUCTION

- Print service has been rapidly growing and has to turn out to change the business' pattern into the online platform.
- Printing service is an essential service for people in this modern era, especially in University since students have a lot of things to print such as notes, documents, and others.
- "Online Printing Service for UMP Campus" will be developed to ensure that it can help students print their materials more conveniently.

METHODOLOGY

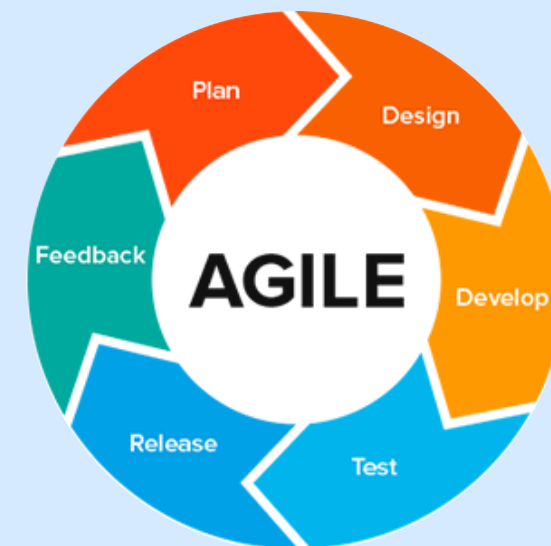

Figure 1: Agile

PROBLEM STATEMENT

Costs a lot of time and energy
- students do not have a flexible time

Less efficient - queue in a line
among crowded people,
especially during peak hours

RESULT

Figure 2: Manage product for the staff

Figure 3: Add product page
by staff

Figure 4: View product available
for customer

Figure 5: Add to cart page for customer

SCOPE

USER

- Students that study in UMP Campus.
- The target user age is above 18 years old.
- There are user and staff involve in this project.

SYSTEM

- This website requires an internet connection and a computer or laptop.
- This website will be in English language.
- This project required the user to upload their materials in pdf format to print them
- This system is based on the paper printing.

DEVELOPMENT

- This project is based on a web-based application.
- The case study is based on the UMP Campus in Pekan and Gambang.

OBJECTIVE

1

To study the technology and functionality of existing online printing services.

2

To design and develop a web-based application for managing online printing service.

3

To evaluate the user acceptance of the proposed web-based application online printing service.

CONCLUSION

- This Online Printing Service for UMP Campus can solve student problem as it is suitable for them to use it at any time and everywhere without worrying about any single problem.
- This website has the potential to grab students' attention as it is effective and user-friendly for them to use.